

How to do the test. Set up your recording device, then start the video below and let it load completely. Listen to each question, pause the video and answer the question. For Part 2 there is one minute of silence for you to write notes, then you will be told to start speaking, pause the video and answer.

Questions are below as well.

Speaking Part 1

Your Home

- Do you like the area that you live in?
- What do you like most about your area?
- What do you dislike in your area?
- What can be improved in your area?
- What facilities are there in your area?
- Do you intend to stay in this area in the future?

Speaking Part 2

Take one minute to write some notes about the topic below, then talk for one to two minutes:

Describe an expensive activity that you enjoy doing occasionally.

You should say:

- what it is
- why it is expensive
- who you usually do it with

and explain why you enjoy doing the activity.

I'd like to ask you a question based on your talk:

- Do you think it is good to splurge once in a while?

Speaking Part 3

We have been talking about an expensive activity, now I'd like to talk about luxuries in general.

- What kinds of expensive activities do people like to do?
- Why are some sports expensive? Are they for everyone?
- What kinds of expensive things do people like to buy?
- What is the difference between women and men in buying things?
- Why do some people like to buy expensive brand items?

This is the end of the speaking test. You should playback your recording to see where you could improve.
